SPECIAL PROJECTS

2018: Lynnette's artwork "Sacred Hare" was one of 18 artworks selected for the Lamp Post Banner Project by the West Chester Borough Public Arts Commission. As a part of this project, original art by regional artists will be printed on banners that will hang in downtown West Chester as a part of a public arts initiative.

2016: "Donkeys Around Town", various locations in downtown Philadelphia, PA.

The "Donkeys Around Town" program is a civic initiative of the Philadelphia 2016 Host Committee for the Democratic National Convention. In celebration of the 2016 Democratic National Convention, 57 fiberglass donkeys were painted by local artists to represent the 50 states, Washington, D.C. and the six U.S. territories. These donkeys were placed at popular sites and attractions throughout Philadelphia in July 2016. Artist Lynnette Shelley was one of 28 artists selected to participate in this public arts project. and was responsible for painting the Missouri and Oklahoma donkeys.

2016: Art Installation by Madison Art Consulting at Nemours duPont Pediatrics in Deptford, NJ.

Four of Lynnette's artworks were licensed as large prints that were permanently installed at this award-winning children's health facility.
